1. The former testing area for "V" weapons at Peenemünde has been made completely inaccessible to unauthorized persons. The workers in the area are not allowed to leave it, although workers at the airfield are allowed outside on holidays.
2. The Peenemünde airfield and the concrete runway have been repaired; the runway has been covered with a thin layer of tar. The buildings are being reconstructed. Late in August the airfield was occupied by 20-40 fighter planes.

4. Fishermen report that an airport and seaplane base at Dievenow (I62) is being enlarged. German workers who have been recruited for Peenemünde are sometimes sent to Dievenow instead. The town has been almost entirely cleared of its Polish residents. A large number of Soviet troops is said to have arrived there during the summer of 1949.
